

Building Hope On A Labyrinth

Labyrinth n. An intricate structure of interconnecting passages through which it is difficult to find one's way.

Hope n. A desire accompanied by confident expectation

It was through the intricate and at times meandering passages of his life that Pug discovered its meaning and his purpose. Love. He learned to love others, love himself, and most importantly, to love his work, the foundation of which was hope and was built upon the small and repeated successes and consisted of one goal ~ to offer love.
